THE CIVIC

WELCOME!

Welcome to an exhilarating season at The Civic Theatre Tallaght! As we look ahead to the final months of 2024, we're thrilled to present a dynamic and diverse lineup of performances, premieres, and community programmes that promise to engage, entertain, and inspire. There truly is something for everyone.

WORLD PREMIERES AND FESTIVALS

This season, we are proud to host five world premieres of new works as part of the prestigious Dublin Fringe and Dublin Theatre Festival. These premieres showcase the cutting edge of contemporary theatre, featuring bold, innovative voices and stories that reflect the vibrant cultural landscape of Dublin. The Civic Theatre is proud to announce our participation in Black History Month also in October. This will be a yearly commitment to celebrating the rich history, culture, and contributions of the Black community starting with a reading of the award winning play 'The Mountaintop' by Katori Hall.

FAMILY-FRIENDLY PRODUCTIONS

For families and young audiences, our very own productions of 'Hansel, Gretel & The Witch' will enchant audiences this Halloween with a spooky yet heartwarming retelling of the classic fairy tale. In December, the magic continues with our annual pantomime 'Tickles and the Beanstalk', a festive extravaganza filled with laughter, music, and holiday cheer.

AWARD-WINNING THEATRE

We are delighted to announce the return of the award-winning 'No Magic Pill' by Christian O'Reilly in November. This heartfelt and hilarious story of Martin Naughton, a leader of the disability rights movement in Ireland, breaks new ground in Irish theatre with its authentic casting of disabled actors, providing a powerful and poignant experience for all.

EDUCATION AND COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Our Education Programme continues to flourish, expanding its reach into all local primary and secondary schools with a variety of creative and innovative initiatives. These programs are designed to nurture the next generation of theatre enthusiasts and practitioners, fostering a love for the arts within our community.

A RECORD-BREAKING YEAR

Last year was the busiest year on record for The Civic Theatre, and with your support, we aim to make 2024 another landmark year. Join us in celebrating the arts, supporting local talent, and making this season unforgettable for everyone involved.

We look forward to seeing you at The Civic Theatre Tallaght for an extraordinary season of performances and events.

Warm regards,
Donal Shiels
CEO / Artistic Director

Presented by Verdant Productions and The Civic Theatre, in association with Dublin Fringe Festival

Darryl, a recording engineer and voiceover artist, lives in an attic creating radio ads and recording his own play. After crashing his father's car, Darryl embarks on a magic realist road trip to Limerick and Dublin, encountering suspicious locals, deceased celebrities and historical figures. His special talent for speaking to statues leads to interactions with icons like Richard Harris, Phil Lynott and Molly Malone. Darryl's journey is a blend of hedonism, self-reflection and a quest for either salvation or escape. Written by and starring Shane Casey (Billy Murphy, The Young Offenders).

DRAMA
HOME, BOYS, HOME

Presented by Speckintime in association with The Civic as part of Dublin Theatre Festival.

A new play by Dermot Bolger. After decades abroad, Shane returns to a multicultural Ireland he barely recognises. But he discovers surprising links: an unknown daughter, a black teenage grandson trying to define his identity, and gangland figures threatening the boy's future.

Can he protect this grandson who is unaware of his existence and can they both find ways to feel they truly belong here? Home, Boys, Home completes a unique trilogy that started with In High Germany in the 1990 Dublin Theatre Festival: three standalone plays, written fifteen years apart, recounting the lives of three friends, as emigrants abroad and now as returnees to Ireland.

SANDPAPER ON SUNBURN

Presented by David Horan and Verdant Productions Ltd. as part of Dublin Theatre Festival

Freya's always been sensitive. Difficult, some say. Funny how those words have started to mean the same thing. Jack is four and he's having a meltdown because his Grandad won't let him play with the birthday candles. His Auntie Freya's also having a meltdown. She's twenty-four but is hers really any different?

It's September 2018 and everyone's living in a new, more inclusive Ireland after two referendums and one hot summer. We're all redefining ourselves. And so is Freya. She got dumped. But when her ex shows up at her parents' door along with unexpected news, it feels like anything is possible again. Can sensitive, difficult Freya learn to see herself anew?

The personal becomes political in Sandpaper On Sunburn, a funny and fascinating exploration of identity and family.

Education Programmes

this season at The Civic

As one of the core values of our organisation, we continue to encourage and nurture children and young people's active participation in the Arts. Partnering with the highest calibre of professional artists & theatre companies, we seek to serve the needs of all age categories, offering learning opportunities to engage with fun and meaningful Arts in Education and community programmes.

It is the voice of the child and young person that informs our creative approach to designing, making and producing innovative programmes that connect, engage and enhance social, personal and artistic development in a safe and welcoming space.

SCÉAL GASTA

Presented by High Rock Production Company

This September we present a new workshop development programme with eight primary schools for 10 - 12 year olds. Based on famous Irish myths and legends, the world of the Fianna will be explored in a series of drama games and exercises as Gaeilge! At the end of the schools mini-tour, children will present short performances on the Main Stage of The Civic.

BEHIND THE CURTAIN

Presented by Real Learning Ltd

Real Learning returns this November with a fun, student-led and socially interactive new 'Theatre in Education' workshop for 5th Year students. Groups from eight different schools will work together to articulate their hopes, expectations and fears around their Leaving Cert journey.

For more information or to get your school involved in Civic Theatre Education projects contact mary@civictheatre.ie

STEPPING STONES

Presented by Freshly Ground Theatre Company

Working with 6th class and 1st year students across four schools in South Dublin, Freshly Ground will encourage school communities to engage with themes of transitioning from primary to secondary school. This 'Arts in Education' programme will commence in September with a final presentation in November.

MUSIC

THE DUBLIN GOSPEL CHOIR AND KINGSWOOD COMMUNITY CHOIR

Dublin Gospel Choir will perform in a joint concert with the Kingswood Community Choir, with the aim of raising funds to help support KCC's upcoming trip to Italy. This exciting event will feature an uplifting blend of pop, rock, and gospel music, showcasing the vibrant talents of both choirs. Attendees can look forward to a night filled with harmonious melodies and powerful performances, all while supporting a worthy cause. Audiences will not only enjoy an evening of inspiring music but also contribute to enriching the cultural experiences of the Kingswood Choir on their journey to Italy.

ROSS BROWNE - Only Joking

Presented by Ross Browne

Turning 40 has hit Ross Browne like a ton of bricks. He's not having a mid-life crisis (because who's betting on 80?), but he's diving deep into life's big questions: mortality, purpose and how similar are we to bins? He wonders whether things are really getting better or just funnier. From park runs to playing dictator, Ross is flying close to the sun, but at the end of the day he's 'Only Joking'.

INDIGESTION

Presented by Big Guerilla Productions

A man, whose name we never hear, tells us his story of a life, always slightly out of his control. The madness of a simple rural man, a man shipped off to London at the age of 17 who goes through bouts of depression, obesity and anger issues. He finds and loses love, comes back to Ireland to more misfortune and mayhem and yet there is HOPE. This is a story full of hope, where laughter and tears join hands and race us through fifty years of a life, not much different to our own. This is Seamus O'Rourke doing what he does best, storytelling.

BIG FISH

Presented by Harold's Cross Tallaght Musical Society

Big Fish is a musical based on Daniel Wallace's 1998 novel, 'Big Fish: A Novel of Mythic Proportions', and the 2003 film 'Big Fish', directed by Tim Burton. Big Fish revolves around the relationship between Edward Bloom, a travelling salesman, and his adult son Will. The story shifts between two timelines. In the present-day real world, sixty-year-old Edward faces his mortality while his son, Will, prepares to become a father himself. In the storybook past, Edward ages from a teenager, encountering a Witch, a Giant, a Mermaid, and the love of his life, Sandra. The stories meet as Will discovers the secret his father never revealed.
